

- Great Migration
  - Movement of rural blacks from the south
  - Push by racism and southern community
  - Pull by job possibilities in the north
  - Leads to racial friction
- Aftermath of WWI
  - Influx of immigration again
  - Large numbers of immigrants along with the red scare lead to restriction
  - Quota Acts
    - * Increasingly restricted numbers allowed in
- 1920s
  - Sacco-Vanzetti Case
    - * Appeals drag out until 1927
  - Rise of consumerism
  - Women's rights movement runs out of gas
  - Vaccinations appear
  - Worker productivity increases until the Great Depression